

Summer Seminar 2016

Monday - Tuesday

2 – Day Course

Introduction to Exhibiting – Steven Zwillinger

Course Description:

There are many philatelists who are interested in exhibiting and for whom the first step seems intimidating. One of the ways to overcome this is by one-on-one and small group instruction. This course will take collectors new to exhibiting on a step-by-step journey through the basics of exhibiting, including; subject, story, paper, mounting and presentation.

Participants will learn:

- The main components of a philatelic exhibit
- Steps for arranging, displaying and describing philatelic material
- Techniques for telling a coherent and engaging story

Participants will prepare the major components of a philatelic exhibit in this course.

Intended Audience (who should attend):

- Beginning exhibitors

To get the most out of this course, participants should identify:

- An area of philately in which they wish to exhibit

To get the most out of this course, participants should be willing to:

- Try new things

Materials that participants will need to bring:

- Philatelic materials (or photocopies) for placing in an exhibit
- Laptop computer